Congressman Sara Jacobs (CA-53) Service Academy Congressional Nomination Application

Admission to Academies

NOTE: ADMISSION TO EACH ACADEMY IS ULTIMATLY DECIDED BY THE ACADEMY TO WHICH YOU HAVE APPLIED.

Nomination by Congresswoman Jacobs does not automatically result in selection by the Service Academies.

All applicants must directly contact the academies they are interested in attending to open an admissions file. If you do not apply directly to the academies, you cannot be accepted there. Academies will begin to notify applicants of their admissions status in February 2022, and all offers of appointment are generally sent out by May 2022.

Applicants requesting congressional nominations are also eligible for nominations from the Vice President. The President makes nominations for children of active-duty military personnel or those who died in military service and can appoint an unlimited number for children of Medal of Honor recipients.

Children of armed forces personnel who were killed in action, who are missing in action, or who had or have a 100% service-connected disability contracted in active service may also seek merit-based appointments, as determined by competitive exams.

The service secretaries can nominate individuals who serve as enlisted members of the regular and reserve components of their respective military branches, as well as participants in the reserve officer training corps of the service they oversee.

The superintendents of the academies are also granted the authority to make a limited number of nominations for appointments each year, as well as the ability to nominate additional qualified candidates for the purposes of filling the class.
